F. A. Chisholm, county farm agent, was in Phoenix on business for a few days the first of the week.

Among recent visitors: F. M. Prib-ble, Winslow; R. E. Dagga, Williams; A. G. Sians, Tuba; Thorwald S. Larson, E. A. Leavitt, Holbrook; D. J.
 Thompson, Bellemont.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Cunningham are here from Needles to visit Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Brosa, Mrs. Brosa being Mr. Cunningham's aunt.

Miss Adelaide Aphold, who had been living here for about a year, left recently for Los Angeles, where she will make her home.

Our artist, for an amateur, did pretty well in drawing the picture of Frank Brooks that appears this week in his grocery advertisement.

Harry Henderson, former sheriff of this county, came up Sunday night from Phoenix, staying here a day or so before returning to his home at Congress Junction.

Those wishing literature regarding prevention and treatment of cancer apply to Dr. M. G. Fronske, county chairman for National Cancer Week, October 30-November 5.

Walter Lindblom, Roger Morse, Stuart Campbell and Fred Browning spent Sunday out beyond Rogers lake, trying to get trace of some turkeys they saw there a week or so before.

Harvey Brown returned Sunday night from Cooley, where he had been managing the Arizona Central branch bank for a few weeks during Manager H. H. Luckenbill's vacation.

R. G. Stevenson, who sold his interest in the Western Mercantile Co. last week to his partner, George C. Becker, has become a member of the faculty of the Normal school, in the commercial department.

Miss May Nichols, who had been here visiting her brother, George Nichols, left last week for her home in Minneapolis. Last week she, with Mr. and Mrs. Nichols and Mrs. Frank Thomas, motored to Grand Canyon.

The Western Mercantile Co. offer a wealth of hardware and household necessities bargains in their advertisement in this issue. Mr. Becker is going after business in the most direct and convincing way.—Advertisement.

Miss Lena Laney, the popular and efficient young lady who is secretary to J. C. Dolan, general manager of the Flagstaff Lumber Co., is in Phoenix undergoing hospital treatment and, it is reported here, is much better.

The advertisements in this issue indicate the enterprise and prosperity our merchants exercise and enjoy. In the advertising is always reflected the spirit of the town. Our business men are up and doing. There are never hard times here.

Frank Zalesky is taking a vacation from the express wagon hoping that a long rest will make his lame back all right again. He hurt himself several months ago and has suffered most of the time since then. Bob Henkle is handling the wagon.

Harry Wiltse and Albert Peck are now in charge of the Weatherford hotel pool room, which they bought from Elmer Selck, who, with Mrs. Selck, will leave soon for the south. The boys are popular and no doubt will make a big success of their new venture.

Henry Williams, working for W. E.
 Brosa, east of town, walked off with a six-gun left in Brosa's charge and sold it here. Captured at Winslow, he got away. Captured again at Williams, he was brought here and Magistrate Gilliland told him to either pay $25 or go to jail.

Warren Sala has finished digging spuds on his ranch out west of here and is back in charge of his auto repair shop, in the rear of the Tillman White Garage. Mrs. Sala, who had been out with him, cooking for the men, has returned to her desk at the forest office.

"Tanlac made me feel younger." "It put me back on the payroll." "I can eat whatever I want now." "I no longer suffer from indigestion." "I gained weight rapidly." These and many more expressions are now heard daily as people tell of their experience with Tanlac. Breen-Lewis Drug Co.

APISCOPAL CHURCH.
 Corner Elm and Beaver Sts.

Sunday, November 6.
 9.45 a. m., Sunday school.
 11 a. m., Holy communion, sermon.
 Strangers are cordially invited to all our services.
 REV. H. H. GILLIES, Vicar.

Mr. Gillies has been at Phoenix this week attending the state convention on the nation-wide movement of the Episcopal church. This movement reflects the awakened spirit of the church that strives to meet the new issues before the country and the world since the war.

The conference was addressed in a most inspiring way by Rev. Dr. Kemmerer, the national representative of the church from headquarters at New York. Mr. Gillies will speak Sunday morning on the work done at the conference.

J. C. Penney Co. in their big advertisement this week have a world of shopping and fashion news of interest.

Harry A. Schneek, engineer in charge of surveys for the Southern California Edison company, left yesterday in his car for California; but had car trouble and stayed over until this morning, meeting several business men last evening in an informal gathering at C. B. Wilson's office.

Mrs. Julia Arthur and daughter, Miss Laura left Wednesday for Seligman where Mrs. Arthur will spend the winter with Mr. Arthur. Miss Arthur will visit for a month, then go to Phoenix where she will spend the remainder of the winter with Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Presnell.

O. T. Davis, merchant of Orlando, Fla., and wife, the latter a sister of Hugh McGookin, stopped off here the last of last week to visit Hugh for a couple of weeks. This is their first visit to the land they say, in all fairness, is the fairest they have ever seen. They are on their way to California.

J. C. Dolan, general manager of the Flagstaff Lumber Co., and I. B. Koch, vice-president and manager of the Arizona Lumber & Timber Co., attended the Pacific Logging Congress, a big lumberman's convention, at San Francisco, October 26 to 29. They are expected home this week. Mr. Dolan reported for the accident prevention committee.

Ernest Leonon, Frank Keefe and Herb Babbitt returned Tuesday from Ft. Apache and Cibola where they had been with George Fleming on a business trip. George got into a little muss with a nearly grown, alleged tame bear at Fort Apache. The bear's chain was longer than George thought it was and George lost part of his pants as a penalty for miscalculating the distance.

Pete Berry came in from Grandview Tuesday for a social visit with a doctor and also to have his left hand patched up after having had it kicked by a bean-threshing machine. The back of his hand was badly lacerated and most of the skin torn off; one bone was broken in the hand. Pete says that while he built the machine himself he did not build it out of a Ford and can't understand what made it act that way.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. C. Wheeler returned last week from Riverside, Cal., where they went a few weeks ago on vacation, and announced to their friends here that they had decided to make Riverside their home. Mr.
 Wheeler having bought an electrical store there. He went back Sunday night, Mrs. Wheeler remaining here until Tuesday before returning. Mr.
 Wheeler had been connected with the Arizona Central bank here for some time and both he and his wife have many friends here.
